

2/3 of Florida's land is farms and forests

Florida is No. 1 in oranges and grapefruit
grown in the U.S.

Florida is No. 1
in fresh snap beans
grown in the U.S.

Florida has over 9.5 million acres
of farmland

Florida is No. 1 in cucumbers
grown in the U.S.

Florida is No. 1 in squash grown
in the U.S.

Florida has 47,500 farms

Fresh from Florida®

Florida's top cattle
counties are Okeechobee, Highlands, Osceola and Polk

Florida is No. 1
in fresh tomatoes
grown in the U.S.

Florida is No. 1 in sweet corn grown
in the U.S.

Florida is No. 1
in watermelons
grown in the U.S.

The average size of a Florida farm is about 200 acres

Florida's leading citrus counties are Polk, DeSoto, Hendry and Highlands

Florida is No. 2
in strawberries
grown in the U.S.

Florida is No. 2
in bell peppers
grown in the U.S.

Palm Beach County
is Florida's top agriculture producer

Florida is No. 2 in greenhouse and nursery plants grown in the U.S.

Florida is No. 3 in honey produced in the U.S.

There are over 1.6 million head
of cattle in Florida

Florida exports its agricultural products around the world

Canada is the top importer of Florida agricultural products

